

Ibi Erekosima MBBS, MMedSc (Renal Medicine)
Director, Medicals and Health

Ibi Erekosima is a medical graduate of University of Port Harcourt Nigeria. He had his postgraduate training both in General and Renal Medicine in Nigeria and in the UK. He is presently a Staff Renal Physician with Hope Hospital, Manchester and also oversees the haemodialysis unit in Rochdale Greater Manchester.

Ibi has practiced medicine in Nigeria and UK in the last 20 years. He has a passion for developing renal services in Nigeria and has been a guest speaker to the National conference of the Nigerian Association of Nephrology. He has also been involved with professional leadership in the past.

He is happily married to Eno and we have a lovely daughter – Sotonye. He is the Director in Medicals and Health overseeing clinical services.

He is presently a trustee of a UK based Christian charity called TASTE (Transfer of Appropriate Sustainable Technology and Expertise). The charity is involved in providing safe drinkable water in rural communities of Nigeria. It also supports suitably qualified young Nigerians to work alongside with local communities in Nigeria in partnership with international development agencies.
